LEGAL DESCRIPTION: SE1/4 of Section 14, Township 93N, Range 48W of the 5th P.M., Plymouth County, Iowa. (Containing Approx. 160 Improved Acres)

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: In this offering is a very nice Portland Township farm that will include an older 4 bedroom, 1 1/2 story farm home and a 42'x60' Morton Building and other outbuildings. This rolling farm in Western Plymouth County has been in the Johnson Family for decades. It is really well located in an area rich in livestock productions, ethanol productions and wonderful grain marketing facilities in almost any direction. We all know that having marketing alternatives is the key to maximizing your potential profits. Also, the ease of access being located right on the highway makes this farm even more attractive for simplifying farming.

There is a 1 1/2 story older farm home that has 4 bedrooms, 1 full bathroom and a full kitchen, living and dining room. There is a full basement and an upstairs with 3 bedrooms. This house could be made into a very nice home for someone who wants to enjoy country living. You can see from the screened in areas that the Johnson's enjoyed their home a lot. There is also a very nice 42'x60' Morton Building that makes excellent storage. There are other out buildings as well.

The Plymouth County FSA Office shows 144.5 Cropland Acres with a 60.2 acre Cornbase w/a 133bu. PLC. Yield Index and a 60.2 acres Soybean base w/a 37bu. PLC. Yield Index. The NRCS and Assessors Office shows the main soil types to be Ida and Kennebec-McPaul and Galva with a small amount of Steinhauer. The farm has a weighted average CSR II of 59. This is a fantastic opportunity to buy an Improved 160 tract in a great area.

Best of Luck to you all! Bruce R Brock
