GENERAL DESCRIPTION: Farmers, Outdoor Enthusiasts, Hunters, Fishermen!!

In the offering is a truly unique, diverse 120-acre tract of Woodbury County Farmland. This beautiful piece of property lying just on the East side of Anthon, Iowa can be whatever you would like it to be. For those of you who are outdoor enthusiasts that want to enjoy having your own private get away with extra income potential this is it. With the Little Sioux River running through the property, Hunting and Fishing possibilities are unlimited. The FSA Office will make the final determination after the sale on the exact tillable acres which are combined with another 40 acre tract. There will be a nice amount of farmland that will go with the 120 acres. The NRCS Office shows the main soil types to be Anthon and Rawles with a lot of other diverse soils, all listed on our website. The Farm carries a weighted average CSR2 of approximately 67.

No matter what you want from a piece of land in the heart of Woodbury County, this farm can provide it. Whether you are going to farm the land and maybe want some additional income from a possible hunting and fishing lease or vice versa. Imagine the joy of your (own) private escape where you can enjoy nature in all her Glory. Sitting on the riverbank listening to the soothing sounds as the Little Sioux flows by and upland game and birds share their world with you. All this plus additional income from the land. How could it get any better than this? The Krells are giving someone a rich opportunity. Good Luck Everyone and Dream of years of enjoyment!!
